COME AND GET IT

PPETER PORKCHOPS was decorating his new home. He bought pictures for the wall and pretty curtains for the windows and some vases for flowers. He also bought a big glass bowl.

"Now let me see!" he said, scratching his head. "What'll I put in this big glass bowl, so's it'll look nice in the middle of the table?"

He thought and thought. Then he got a good idea. . . .

"Artificial fruit! That's it! That's what I'll put in it!" Peter said happily. "The colors will look so pretty through the glass bowl. And with the realistic way they make artificial fruit out of wax nowadays, it'll look DELICIOUS, TOO!"

The next day he went downtown and bought the artificial fruit. He brought it home and arranged it in the bowl. Shiny red wax apples! Shiny yellow bananas! Pale green grapes! Bright wax oranges! How pretty they looked!

Several weeks later A. Wolf came to call on Peter, so he could look over the new decorating job. Wolf admired everything loudly, but inside himself he was angry!

"It just isn't right for Peter to have such a beautiful home!" he was muttering to himself. "It isn't fair for him to always be so gay and contented when I'm always so miserable and grumpy! What's he ever done to deserve this nice place?"

Wolf glanced at Peter, who was relaxing with a big smile in his huge, soft easy chair. Wolf's jealous blood boiled!

"Say, Peter!" he said suddenly. "Have you got any errands to do?"

"No. Why?"

"Oh, I just thought I could stay here and mind your house for you if there's any place you have to go!" Wolf answered with a sweet smile.

As soon as Peter saw Wolf's sweet smile, he sat up at attention. He knew that when Wolf smiled, especially when he smiled sweetly, he was planning some mischief!

"I intend to sit right here in this chair all day long!" Peter said, glaring at Wolf's sweetly-smiling face.

"Okay, okay!" replied Wolf.

But Wolf didn't give up that easily. After he'd left Peter's house that afternoon he went home to his own dowdy, messy house. There he lay down on the dirty, lumpy couch to figure out a plan . . . a plan to ruin Peter's lovely house!

Finally he struck on one and dashed to the phone. He called the Zoolville Police Station and shouted to the Police Chief:

"I JUST SPOTTED A BURGLAR TRYING TO GET IN A WINDOW OF THE HOUSE ON THE CORNER OF SIXTH STREET AND FOLEY ROAD!"

Then, as he heard the police car zooming off with a siren screaming, he jumped to the phone again and called Peter Porkchops.

"Hey, Peter! Do me a favor!" Wolf spoke excitedly into the phone. "Go outside and search on the windowsill of your front window. When I left and passed by it, I heard a little rip, but I thought nothing of it at the time. However, now I've discovered my money's missing, so I guess my pocket must've ripped and my money must've fallen out by your front window. Go have a look, will you, Peter, and see if you can find my dough there?"

"Sure, Wolf!" Peter replied, and laying down the phone, he went outside and started looking around by the window.

But suddenly he whirled around! A spotlight shone right on him and two cops ran towards him!

"THAT'S THE GUY!" one cop yelled.

"I GOT HIM!" the other cop shouted, and Peter felt himself being grabbed and dragged into the police car.

"B-but, officers, you're m-making a mistake! I l-live here!" Peter kept protesting.

"Oh yeah, buddy!" the cops laughed. "That's why you were trying to sneak in through the window, eh, 'cause you LIVE here! Oh yeah!"

After Peter was taken away, another figure crept past the window of his house and sneaked in the door. A. Wolf's plan had worked! He'd gotten Peter out of the house! Now Wolf was free to wreck the place! But just as Wolf was about to start tearing the whole house apart, his eyes caught sight of something!

"Mmmmm . . ." he said, rubbing his empty stomach. "What delicious-looking fruit!"

He walked over to the big glass bowl and selected the shiniest, reddest apple. He was so hungry that he didn't even bother taking a bite out of it! He simply placed the whole big apple in his mouth, chewed it quickly, and gulped it down!

Down at the police station, Peter Porkchops had kept insisting on his innocence. At last the cops believed his story, and Peter started to leave. But as he passed a bulletin board he noticed a picture of Wolf on it! Under the picture were these words:

WANTED FOR DISORDERLY CONDUCT . . . A REWARD OF $100 WILL BE GIVEN TO ANYONE WHO CAN LOCATE THIS LAWBREAKER!

Suddenly Peter realized that Wolf's phone call must've been a fake. He had wanted to get Peter arrested, so that he could get into Peter's house while he was at the police station! Peter ran all the way home, almost crying, for he was sure that by this time Wolf, in his envy, must've completely wrecked his beautiful new house!

"Oh, oh, oh me!" Peter sighed as he ran. "If only I can get there in time to save SOMETHING!"

But Peter's fears were put at ease the second he burst through his front doorway and looked around. There was A. Wolf, bleary-eyed and green around the gills, just as sick as sick can be! And Peter's house was untouched, for Wolf had collapsed the very moment he'd swallowed the big, red, shiny WAX APPLE!

"Come along with me, Wolfie!" Peter smiled, tugging the wicked fellow out the door. "I'm going to take you to a nice place where I can get ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for turning you in!"
